President McKinley and His Cabinet
Overwhelmed by Office-seekers
A Brief Session of the Senate
Several Appointments Made:

[BY THE TIMES' SPECIAL WIRE.]
WASHINGTON, March 8.—[Special Dispatch.] Senator Perkins will tomorrow place in the hands of President McKinley the indorsements of Mr. H. deYoung and other Californians for places under the present administration. In each instance the document consists of a short statement addressed name of the man favored, his present position, and the reasons why the delegation united upon him for the place desired. These are signed by every member of the Republican delegation.

Central Committee was today presented to the President by Senator Perkins and Congressman Loud. After the ceremony there was a short talk consisting entirely of congratulations, not word being said regarding offices. The chairman then proceeded to the Capitol, where he had a formal consultation

Federal positions have actually been made, but a number of men have been named who will surely be cared for in the distribution of the jobs.

There is now no question that Judge de Haven will be indorsed for the Circuit Judgeship, to succeed Judge McKenna.

AT THE WHITE HOUSE.
The President Overwhelmed With Callers of All Descriptions.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The rush toward the White House was unabated today. Most callers were intent on placing the question of offices and other matters before the President. People were told the President would hold a public reception at 3 o'clock, and this had the effect of keeping back the gen-

The foreign ships preserve order in Crete and prevent the landing of Turkish troops, the presence of the Greek ships is unnecessary, but it is explained that the Greek army cannot leave the Christians to the risk of Muslim fanaticism and the Turkish troops.

LONDON COMMENT.

LONDON, March 9.—The Times in its editorial this morning on the reply to Greece to the powers, considers that she advances no convincing arguments why they should not execute the threats of coercion.

The Daily News thinks the reply is

Hellenes on the Pacific Coast Will Fight for their King.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.]
SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—In a

of Greeks resident upon the Pacific Coast who are ready and fit for active service, the president of the local Hellenic Society says: "There are about a thousand Greeks on the Coast. They are engaged in various business pursuits. Out of this number at least six hundred are willing to serve their country, and here in this city 150 men have notified the Consul that they are ready to leave for Greece or Crete at a day's notice. Several of these are married."

SAN JOSE, March 8.—Last September an old fisherman, Charles J. Rodman, was found dead in his boat on the slough near Alviso. Nothing but a mere grinning skeleton was left when the remains were found by railroad section hands. Rodman had been dead for some time, possibly weeks, and rats had eaten the flesh from his bones. Coroner Secord held an inquest and took charge of his effects there, which consisted of a chain and the ark, which sold for $7.50.

George Emery, the purchaser, soon afterward began to dress well and later took a trip east. Recently he returned and efforts were made to learn how he had acquired so much wealth. While in liquor last night at Alviso it was drawn out of him that there was money in the ark. He exhibited a $1000 note in proof and said there was much more.

Public Administrator Secord asked today for special letters. Emery was brought into court on a bench warrant and examined about his wealth. With much difficulty he was induced to admit that he found eighty $20 gold pieces and a United States note for $1000 in the ark. Emery said that he had heard of the parties, naming J. Baird as one of the parties. After he went east he had heard that others got $2700 in coin out of the ark.

WHERE IS CROWELL?

San Diego Insurance Agent Said to Be Missing.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.]
SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—Anxious inquiries are being made in this city for Capt. J. L. Crowell of San Diego. Capt. Crowell is a member of the firm of Bowers & Crowell, insurance agents of that town, but is charged with having quietly left there for San Francisco.

According to the statements made by Mrs. Bowers, the business partner, who is now here looking for him, the missing man made away with $300 belonging to her husband. She says the latter and Crowell negotiated a loan of $800, agreeing to divide it, but instead Crowell left town, going by rail to Los Angeles, where it is supposed he departed with the money from this city. No trace can be found of the man after he arrived in Los Angeles, but Mrs. Bowers is confident that he is in the city.

IT'S A BIG MISTAKE.

SAN DIEGO, March 8.—J. W. Bowers of this city, was shown the Associated Press dispatch from San Francisco saying that his wife was in the latter city looking for his partner, Capt. Crowell. Mr. Bowers, who is a member of the firm of Bowers & Crowell, insurance agents of that town, but is charged with having quietly left there for San Francisco.

A MURDEROUS COP.

Killed a Bartender and Tried to Commit Suicide.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.]
SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—Henry Sullivan, a bartender, was shot and killed by Police Officer George Deaghtery in an O'Farrell-street saloon early this morning, and the latter immediately afterward shot himself in the head, inflicting a serious but not necessarily fatal wound.

The proprietor of the establishment, Edward Lunsford, who was a witness of the tragedy, declares that no harsh language was indulged in before the fatal shot was fired. To his mind the killing was the result of the slightest provocation, which leads to the assumption that it must have been the result of an old grudge.

OAKLEY'S EFFECTS.

They are Submitted to the Coroner for Inspection.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.]
SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—Coroner Hawkins was today permitted by the Palace Hotel management to inspect the property of John M. Oakley, the Pittsburgh broker who was suddenly stricken with apoplexy a few days ago. The dead traveler's wardrobe was not very extensive, comprising some brushes and combs and but few clothes, as if his departure from home had been hurried.

Among his effects was a letter of credit for $1000, subject to drafts. Against this letter Oakley had already drawn $250. Among his letters of introduction was one to Rev. L. L. Bailey, missionary, and to various ladies, Yokohama and Kobe, Japan. He also carried a passport issued to Oakley, his wife and minor child.

RAIN UP THE COAST.

Contra Costa Mountains Covered with Snow.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.]
SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—The rain is general all over the northern portion of the State, but it is probable that by tomorrow night it will begin to clear away in this locality. The wind is from the south, and it is much colder at San Luis Obispo and San Diego than here, there having been a fall of 8 deg. in the temperature down there Saturday night. Sunday morning there were vivid flashes of lightning visible east of the Contra Costa mountains.

range and Sunday the mountains were covered with snow.
The normal rainfall, taking the average of the seasons since the Weather Bureau was started has been 23.6 inches at this point. At Sacramento the river has 30.6 feet in the channel and rising.

Forecaster Hamm has gone to Sacramento for two weeks, and during his absence Alexander Macle will be local forecast official.
During the last twenty-four hours the precipitation was .11 of an inch, and 20.6 inches for the season. This leaves but a small margin of rain to fall during the next three months to bring it up to the normal. Last season at this date the rainfall had been 15.59 inches.

WAR OF THE YUPS.

Highlanders Asked to Let Big Jim Live in Peace.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.]
SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—A petition is being circulated among the Chinese merchants in behalf of "Big Jim," who was forced to leave the city because he said the Sam Yup highlanders intended murdering him in revenge for the death of "Little Pete." The circular absolves Jim from complicity in Pete's murder and urges the highlanders to permit him to live here unmolested.

Twelve representatives of the See Yups, to which long Jim belongs, left this evening for Washington, where they intend to ask government aid in securing a remission of the penalties imposed upon their imprisoned relatives.

UTAH SNOWSLIDE.

Body of Another of the Victims at Park City Found.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.]
SALT LAKE (Utah), March 8.—A special to the Tribune from Park City, Utah, says: Search was continued today in the snowslide at the Daly mine and at 9 o'clock the body of Joseph Zucca was taken out. He had been pushed out against the boiler-house 200 feet from where he slept. His body was buried under a bank of snow 300 feet deep. Papers on Zucca's body indicated that he formerly lived at Rutland, Ill.

The disaster will cause the suspension of operations at the mine for several weeks in order to make the necessary repairs. The snowfall in the camp is the heaviest that has been known for ten years.

GERMAN COLONISTS.

Want a Location Suitable for Fruit and Sugar Beets.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.]
SALINAS, March 8.—August Erse and W. H. Lane, San Francisco capitalists, have been through this county looking for a suitable location to colonize into a German settlement. They propose to procure about 25,000 acres. They will get land most suitable for growing sugar beets and apples as the large factory plant to be located in this city will require a greater quantity of beets than was first estimated. The party has visited Santa Luis Obispo and are now in the Santa Ynez country. The project is that of a Chicago corporation.

A FAMILY POISONED.

Milk of Cows That Ate Toxicodendron Did It.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.]
REBE BLUM, March 8.—Mrs. E. Thompson and five children, who live on Reed's Creek, eight miles west of here, are in a serious condition from poisoning. Dr. Westlake, who was summoned to attend them, says their symptoms are those of any mineral poison, and from the investigation he made he is convinced they were poisoned by drinking milk from cows which had eaten toxicodendron. He can account for it in no other way as the diet of the family has not been changed and no canned goods had been eaten by them.

DOLPH'S LEG CUT OFF.

The Ex-United States Senator May Not Survive the Shock.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.]
PORTLAND (Or.), March 8.—Ex-United States Senator J. N. Dolph today had his left leg amputated just above the knee and tonight he lies in a critical condition. Dolph, who is well known in this city, has been in constant communication with him, a letter having been received from him two days ago at San Francisco. Mr. Bowers says that there has been a big mistake somewhere in the matter.

Troops Have Not Yet Molested the Intruders.

SALT LAKE (Utah), March 8.—A special from Price, Utah, to the Tribune, says the orders from department headquarters to remove the intruders from the area have not yet been received, and hundreds of settlers still remain on their locations, and declare that nothing but military force will remove them off.

The "sooner" openly defy the local officials, and many of them are actually working their claims.

A Brakeman Injured.

SACRAMENTO, March 8.—At midnight tonight, W. H. Parsons, a railroad switchman, was found lying by the track on the river front in an unconscious condition. He was removed to the local hospital where it was found he was suffering from concussion of the brain. He partially recovered consciousness, but could not talk and was unable to give his name. The surgeons think he will pull through.

Foster Shot for Following.

SAN JOSE, March 8.—The mysterious shooting of Frank Foster last night has been explained. He was shot by Frank Enderlin, because Foster and his friend, Todd Powers, were following him to "do him up." Enderlin and the latter had been in a saloon together and Powers admitted that he requested Foster to assist in whipping Enderlin. Enderlin was arrested tonight.

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE.

THIRTY-SECOND SESSION.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.]
SACRAMENTO, March 8.—SENATE. The Senate Committee, appointed to investigate the charges of bribery in the passage of bill 273, disqualifying judges, this morning asking further instructions. The report stated that A. M. Lawrence, Al Murphy and L. L. Levings had declined to answer questions and the committee could not go any further.

Mr. Morehouse offered a resolution which was adopted by the Senate, by a vote of 22 to 11, directing the sergeant-at-arms to call all the members of the Senate to the bar of the Senate forthwith to answer questions, and if they still persisted in their refusal to answer Senate questions, they should be committed for contempt.

Senator Smith made a motion this afternoon to reconsider the vote by which Assembly bill 133 was refused passage. The motion was rejected.

The bill by Ennis, relating to the duties of boards of supervisors respecting roads, was passed.

Bridgeford's irrigation bill had a number of amendments tacked on to it and was read a second time.

The following bills were lost: Seward's regulating the mode of operating mines where blasting is being done; by Shames, relating to rights-of-way across mining claims; by Bert, to preclude the duty of the state engineer and insurance Commissioner in relation to the admission of insurance corporations, associations or individuals, to do business in this state.

The Senate chamber was crowded tonight when the Senate convened. The galleries held their full capacity, and on the floor chairs were placed to accommodate the members. The Senators' desks were crowded with lady friends of the members and a constant buzz indicated that something unusual was taking place.

The Examiner was to be tried for contempt and otherwise, to know just how the thing was to be done. A little disappointment was manifested when Senator Seawell presented a telegram from George A. Baker, asking for a continuance until tomorrow morning.

Senator Seawell said that the matter was now in the hands of the Senate and he would abide by the result of that body. Another telegram was read from Knight to Senator Stratton asking him to urge continuance until tomorrow morning.

Senator Dickinson said that the case had already been postponed from Friday night till Monday, and at the request of the Examiner he postponed the contempt proceedings from 3:30 this afternoon until tonight.

Senator Maloney moved to postpone action until tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. Braunhart seconded the motion.

Morehouse objected to the delay, saying there was no occasion for it. The law and the duty of the Senate were plain. The Examiner had on the ground two hundred and thirty men, Ermerney and A. J. Clunie. The granting of counsel was only a courtesy.

Senator Wolfe said the resolution passed this morning was of miscellaneous nature, and he would move to amend it to a F. Reynolds to S. J. Hill, lots 81, 82, 83, 84, Kierkegaard tract, 300.

Senator Simpson hoped the motion would not prevail. He said that the Examiner had set the time for the hearing and that the paper should be made to stick to it.

Senator Seawell said the galleries were crowded and he supposed some body wanted to be in the gallery. He was not urgent and he hoped there was no disposition to make politics out of the investigation.

The question was finally put to a vote on Senator Mahoney's motion, and the postponement was granted by 19 to 16.

Assembly bill 273, disqualifying judges, was reconsidered and the bill was passed by a vote of 22 to 11.

Union Telegraph Company, which called and asked for the telegrams which had been sent to members of the Assembly and Hayward, Crocker, Baker and Herrin. Ex-Judge Carpenter, counsel for Jaynes, said that the subpoena was not sent to its terms, and that his client could not comply with it. He suggested issuing a new order including only telegrams referring to bill No. 273. This was done, the order being made returnable at 2 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon.

SACRAMENTO, March 8.—The Governor signed the bill increasing the salary of Chief Crowley and other heads of the San Francisco police department.

GEN. LOGAN'S STATUE.

It Will Be Unveiled by Comrades of the Black Eagle.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.]
CHICAGO, March 8.—St. Gaudens's equestrian statue of Gen. John A. Logan, in the Lake Front Park, will be unveiled July 22. The work of the noted sculptor is now being cast in bronze in New York, and in a few days the South Park Commissioners will begin to build the foundation on which the immense figure will rest. The date for the unveiling of the statue has been selected by Mrs. John A. Logan in commemoration of the foundation on which the statue will be placed.

The survivors of the famous 103 members of the Illinois Legislature who stood together for sixteen weeks until the deadlock was broken and Gen. Logan was elected United States Senator will attend the unveiling ceremonies. These men have formed an association, of which Senator William E. Mason, who took an important part in that famous Senatorial fight which placed Gen. Logan in the Senate, is president, and he and Senator Cullom, who was senator Logan's colleague, are vice-presidents. The association will deliver addresses July 22. All of the veterans, who wear the miniature black knapsack, to show that they fought under the Black Eagle of Illinois, will be special guests of honor on that occasion, and it is designed to give the event a national, as well as a State and local importance.

The statue presents Gen. Logan hatless, seated on a horse which paws the ground impatiently, while the rider with difficulty restrains him from plunging forward.

GERMAN NAVAL BUDGET.

Chancellor Hohenlohe Backs Up Von Hollmann's Demands.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.]
BERLIN, March 8.—When debate on the bill for the naval estimates of the Budget Committee of the Reichstag was resumed today, Prince Hohenlohe, Imperial Chancellor, endorsed the view of the Secretary of the Navy, Vice-Admiral von Hollmann, that they would still require ten cruisers, five dispatch vessels, two gunboats, five ironclads, two monitors, two floating batteries and two torpedo boats. The total cost of the program was estimated at 22,166,000 marks in 1898, 55,000,000 in 1899, 96,250,000 in 1900, and 60,000,000 in 1901. The Chancellor added that the time for the necessary assent of the Federal government and the Reichstag to the programme depended on the general financial situation.

MURDER AMONG THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC'S CHIHUAHUA INDIANS.

Great Railroad Guns Aiming This Way—Suits of Stolen Clothes. Ontario Wants to Issue More Bonds.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.] The return of Coroner Keating from the investigation of the murder at South Etiwanda takes all the romance out of the affair and places it among the list of drunken brawl killings. The murderer is now in jail and will be taken to Ontario Tuesday for the preliminary examination. His name is Francisco Moreno, while the name of the murdered man is Gabrielle Sauerco, or, as nearly as the Coroner could obtain it, as none of the gang could read or write and the name was spelled out by sound. The principals in the affair are part of a Southern Pacific construction crew, and are Chihuahuas Indians, brought across the line on a labor contract and have been working along from El Paso to San Bernardino, where they are putting in a new siding for the company. In the outfit are about sixty men and fifteen women. The wife of the murdered man, who here as a witness, has three little children with her. The cause of the affray was a liberal supply of wine from the Wiesland winery, and as Saturday was payday for the gang, they were all hilariously drunk. Moreno came along the side of the section cars and fired his pistol off as a sort of a bluff, and on Sauerco coming along he turned the gun on him, the ball entering the right anterior shoulder, passing through both lungs and lodging in the cavity, death being caused by internal hemorrhage.

Coroner Keating, Deputy District Attorney Rolfe, with a stenographer and interpreter, made a thorough investigation of the case, and the verdict of the jury was that the murder was committed by Francisco Moreno. The whole party have been a menace to the peace of the country all the way since entering it from Mexico, and they have committed depredations, getting drunk and terrorizing the neighborhood wherever located. The story of the prisoner is that the killing is accidental, as he fired at the Indian, who was assaulting Sauerco with a knife, and had stabbed the latter, but hit the wrong man. An examination of the dead man shows that there is a wound in the chest, and the only wound on him is that made by the bullet.

SANTA FE OFFICIALS COMING.

A special train of six coaches is due here tonight or in the morning over the Santa Fe, which contains the following officials of the road: President, R. W. Johnston, chief engineer; J. D. Purdon, assistant engineer; W. G. Nevin, general agent; W. E. Smith, secretary; John A. McCall, president of the New York Life Insurance Company, who is one of the directors; Edward N. Smith, J. Parker Whitney, directors; C. W. Smith, receiver; A. G. Wells, general superintendent; W. H. Smith, purchasing agent, and others. This is the first time the entire system, giving especial attention to the Atlantic and Pacific and the Southern California, with the main line of meeting any of the Santa Fe, will extend their lines in this section. It is expected the party will make quite a stop in this city.

ROBBERY OF A STORE.

A number of thieves entered the store of Rudolph Anker during the night, gaining an entrance by breaking in a back window, and once inside helping themselves to whatever suited their taste. Several suits of clothes were taken, and a guitar, which touched their musical fancy. There is no clew to either the thieves or the goods taken, but probably a few hobos are enjoying the unusual luxury of a clean suit and posing as musicians.

SAN BERNARDINO BREVITIES.

The hobo who wields the scissors with such deadly effect, was caught today by Sheriff Carlisle, for arraignment and the case was set for Wednesday, with John E. Light assigned as counsel.

The Chinaman, You Den, was brought up for sentence today, but the case was postponed till Wednesday.

John M. Costly was called up in Department Two and fined $25 for assault.

May E. Haynes of Los Angeles filed complaint today against Hanson & Co. for foreclosure to collect on a note of $4100, given September 19, 1895.

The Savings Bank of Southern California has filed a complaint against George N. Turner, his wife, and others, claiming $500 on a note given at Rialto November 15, 1892.

A marriage license was issued to David Kidd, a native of Ireland, aged 42, and Florence Keller, a native of Tennessee, aged 40, both residents of Cucamonga.

James Hocking, the $173-per-day man of the Sacramento scandal, is in luck, having been retained the whole session in a nominal position at $5 per day, and last week his salary was raised to $8 per day, to date back to the beginning of the session. Javes must have an awful "push."

The Ontario habeas-corpus case came up before Judge Campbell and as one of the lawyers was sick, it was postponed till next Monday, the Judge remarking that it must go then if all the lawyers on the bench were sick.

Ontario wishes to vote bonds again, and with this blow at their incorporation hanging over them the citizens dare not go ahead with the preliminaries.

The Games

ALL ALONG THE LINE.

It's a funny proposition when somebody tells a newspaper how to run its business, and what the size of its headlines should be.

It begins to look as if the Council would approve the Main Street traveling job without further investigation if not watched pretty closely. Everybody else is convinced that the job ought not to be approved.

San Pedro's real-estate revival continues, but prices have not advanced to boom figures, and the local dealers declare that property can be bought at lower prices there today than in other towns of the same size.

Mayor Snyder is not yet "as big a man as old Cleveland," but he made the creditable record yesterday of sending in to the Council two vetoes, both of which were promptly knocked out of the door. The new ordinance will probably go through the same mill.

Santa Ana wants wider sidewalks, and, apparently, wants them bad. At a recent meeting of the Town Council an ordinance providing for the widening of the walks failed to pass its first reading on account of the absence of one of the Trustees favoring the measure, and now a special meeting has been called to reconsider the ordinance.

It is to be supposed that "Kid" Thompson, the notorious train-ropper, having pledged himself to hereafter abstain from the use of alcoholic and spirituous liquors as a beverage, will be ready to "swear off" train-robbing as a profession, should the court ever allow him an opportunity to demonstrate his sincerity in either line of reformation.

It is refreshing to discover here and there in this wicked world a man who recognizes virtuous deeds and noble, unselfish motives, and stands forth and proclaims them with words of generous recognition. Such a man is E. C. Webster, whose name has been engraved in letters of enduring brass upon the brow of the highest peak of the San Gabriel range. Mr. Webster does not hesitate to say that the builders of the electric road are "noble gentlemen" who do not seek to make money, but build railroads to show their love for Pasadena, its people and its climate. "These good and noble gentlemen now offer to light the streets of Pasadena free, and all they ask in return is an absolute monopoly of the streets of the city for railway purposes.

WOMEN WANT WORK.

Over Sixty Have Already Applied for Employment.

More than sixty women went yesterday to the rooms at No. 313 South Broadway to register their names as applicants for work. They do not want charity, but work, any honest means by which they may put bread into the hungry little mouths of their children.

A few of the most urgent cases of need were supplied with employment sufficient to enable them to earn money for immediate necessities, but the great majority are waiting anxiously for what fate has in store. Many can do plain sewing, and the rest are ready to earn their bread by washing, scrubbing, or any kind of hard labor.

The difficulty is now to obtain work for the applicants. The Committee on Decorations has promised the fete work to these women. The plan of decoration has been changed so that more work can be given to the women, and the work will be commenced two weeks earlier than usual in recognition of the pressing need.

Now is the time for the women of Los Angeles to show of what stuff they are made. If one hundred should call today at the committee rooms in the Muskegon Block, No. 313 South Broadway, with just 50 cents' worth of sewing apiece, it would mean more to these haggard, anxious creatures than $5000 would to those whose fair, comfortable lives have never been pinched and starved in the relentless grip of dire poverty. Few women even in moderate circumstances are so poor that they cannot afford to have a few extra sheets, pillow-cases, napkins, underclothes, pinafores for the children, kitchen aprons or the dozen staples of every household made up to keep in stock, and it would mean life to these women who have wearily tramped the streets in search of work. Cast-off clothing, if brought to the rooms, would be a blessing both to the poor women who would be hired to make them over, and to the ragged little children who could thus be comfortably clad for once in their lives.

Surely the most thrifty housewives could find a day's work in their own homes for some woman whom the day's wage would mean another barrier between her children and the wolf that snarls at the door. It will not be many weeks before there will be work enough and to spare with the fruit in the mean time, surely Los Angeles can show enough kind-hearted women to help these unfortunate sisters to struggle to their feet, free from the danger of starvation or the disgrace of pauperism. So little from each one would relieve the distress. Surely those who have responded generously to the call for mere giving will be ready to aid in the noblest form of charity, that of helping others to help themselves.

Orchestra Concert.

The Sunday-school orchestra of the First Congregational Church gave its third public concert last evening before a good-sized audience. The orchestra was organized little more than a year ago by W. H. Mead, and now numbers twenty-two regular members. It has become a leading feature of the Sunday-school.

SOCIETY.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Williamson celebrated their crystal wedding last evening at their residence on Orange street. Mrs. Williamson was assisted by her sister, Mrs. H. K. Williamson. The rooms were decorated with quantities of callas, palms and wild flowers. The evening was devoted to German whist, at which prizes were given. The souven-irs were Bohemian bud vases filled with wild yellow violets. Mrs. Williamson was gowned in black brocade silk, with waist of black and yellow brocade, garnished with jet and yellow chiffon. The guests were:

Mesdames—
F. J. Hart, H. T. Newell, H. Veazie, H. M. Sale, A. P. West, L. Coppock, Augustus Pratt, P. Janss, Misses—
Elliot, Budge, Messrs.—
P. J. Hart, P. Janss, Cunningham, Newell, F. Chase, Hazle, H. K. Williamson, H. M. Sale, A. P. West, L. Coppock, Augustus Pratt, P. Janss, F. M. French, George Elliott, P. Williamson, Givens.

Mr. and Mrs. Motley Flint gave an informal dinner last evening at their residence on Hawkins street, in honor of Mrs. J. A. Ling, who will leave soon for a visit in the east. The table was decorated with pink and white carnations and maidenhair ferns, arranged in a large cutglass bowl in the center, while at each place were bunches of purple violets. The guests were Judge and Mrs. Ling, Judge and Mrs. B. C. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bradford, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flint. There was a large attendance yesterday at the regular monthly social meeting of the Elbell. The afternoon was devoted to the ballad. Miss Jeanne Denen read a charming paper on "The Development of the Ballad," and illustrated by Miss Clara Denen, and illustrated by Miss Garfield, who read "Robin Hood and Allen Adale" and "Sir Patrick Spens." Miss Cruzan sang the old English ballads, "Beneath the Willow Tree" and "Oh for a Husband." Miss Adair sang "Annie Laurie" and the "Lovelace." Miss Elliott sang "Robin Adair" and Miss Cruzan closed the programme with "Down Among the Dead Men."

NOTES AND PERSONALS.
Mrs. Barrett Eastman arrived Sunday evening for a stay of four weeks. She is stopping at the Bonafino on West Washington street.
Miss Mary Banning and Mr. Norris, who went up to Santa Barbara last Friday to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Dater at their ranch, will return home either today or tomorrow.
Ex-Gov. and Mrs. Howard of Wisconsin were entertained at dinner on Sunday by Dr. and Mrs. F. T. Bicknell at their residence on North Broadway.
Miss Birdie Chanslor left yesterday for Elsinore, to join her mother who is making a several-weeks stay there. She will remain about a week.

POLICE COURT NOTES.
Thomas Banks and Ed Bell, the two negro boys convicted of stealing newspapers on Temple street, were yesterday sentenced by Justice Owens. Banks received fifty days in the City Jail and Bell got thirty days.

Bryant Hamilton, who was arrested for stealing burglar alarms from C. D. Howry, was found guilty yesterday afternoon. He received a sentence of one hundred days.

George Dudley, the youth who stole a lamp and disposed of it, pleaded guilty to petty larceny and will be sentenced today at 2 o'clock. His bail was fixed at $50 in bonds or $30 cash.
E. W. Williams, William Johnson and E. W. Pierce appeared to answer to a charge of battery preferred by Louis Brisbat, who claims that he was cut under the eye by one or all of them. They demanded a jury trial, the time for trial being set for March 15. In the mean time bail is fixed for each one in the sum of $50.

Jung Kim, a Chinese vegetable peddler, got into a row with another of his own class and was arrested yesterday to answer to a charge of battery. Kim demanded a jury trial, and the case was set for March 16, bail being required in the sum of $100.
John Gallagher and James Clark, arrested by Officer Talamantes on a charge of robbery committed on the person of one Joe Bailey, will be arraigned today in Justice Morrison's court.

Mrs. M. A. Buck, who is charged with arson, will have her preliminary examination before Justice Morrison on March 19. It is alleged that Mrs. Buck, in her endeavor to start a good blaze, built four fires at once in various parts of her home, and then satiated other portions of it with coal oil.
Ah Quan, charged by Deputy Constable Brake with bribery, was examined yesterday before Justice Morrison and was held to answer to the charge, being committed to the County Jail. Quan's bail was fixed in the sum of $1000. Quan attempted to buy from the deputy the books of a lottery concern that Brake had seized.
R. Baum, arrested on Sunday night on a charge of indecent exposure, appeared yesterday for trial. Baum pleaded guilty to the charge, and the case was set for today at 2 o'clock, when the witnesses will be on hand. A charge of carrying concealed weapons was also lodged against Baum, to which he pleaded guilty. On this latter charge he will be sentenced today.

José Reyes, now being examined on a charge of cattle stealing preferred by H. E. Lowe, will have his examination continued this morning before Justice Morrison. The other three men arrested for complicity, Daniel Grew, William and Ignacio Mungio, were dismissed on the opening day of the examination.

San Pedro Will Celebrate.
The Los Angeles Terminal Railway Company will celebrate the harbor victory today with an excursion to East San Pedro. Members of the Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Trade and the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association have been invited to attend. The company will run a special train for their accommodation. It will leave the First-street station at 10:30 a.m., and proceed to Terminal Island, at which place a free luncheon will be served. Speeches will be made by prominent citizens, and the train will return to this city during the latter part of the afternoon.

The citizens of San Pedro are preparing also to have a celebration of the harbor decision. It is to be next Saturday week, at which time it is proposed to have a grand barbecue and general good time, to which the people of all Southern California are to be invited to come.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

IMPROVEMENTS TO BE CONSIDERED AT SPECIAL MEETING.

Many Additional Rooms and Several New Buildings Recommended by the Committee.

NEW PIANOS TO BE PURCHASED.

BIDS OPENED AND REFERRED TO A COMMITTEE.

Board of Education Has a Session of Unusual Harmony—Much Business Peacefully Transacted—Communications and Reports.

Harmony was the rule in the meeting last night of the Board of Education, and so little disputing took place that the bystanders watched the members somewhat anxiously, for fear they might not be in their usual health and spirits. The principal subject under discussion was the proposed addition to school accommodations in the city by means of new buildings and of new rooms in the old buildings. The projected purchase of new pianos was next in magnitude and expense, but neither of these vital questions was sufficient to produce even the ghost of a good old-fashioned row.

After the formalities of calling the roll and reading the minutes were disposed of, action was taken upon a large list of communications and reports.

A petition from property-owners on South Thomas street to have that street graded, graveled, curbed and sidewalked with a cement sidewalk between Downey avenue and Barbee street, was referred to the Building Committee for proper recommendations.

A request that the Schoolmasters' Club be still privileged to occupy the rooms of the Board of Education for one Friday evening in each month was granted.

The following communication from the Santa Anita Committee was read:

"To the honorable Board of Education—Gentlemen: In the general plan for the coming year, it was decided by the Committee of Thirty to make the children's event a reception to them as possible, and as little burdensome. For this reason it was decided to hold the event on Saturday morning, and to have it in the nature of a reception by the queen to the children of Los Angeles at the tribunes, when they could have the opportunity to see Her Majesty and court without being crowded by the grown people. The tribunes will be reserved for the children without expense to them, and the exercises complete the bringing of a single flower by each child to throw to Her Majesty, who in return will possibly give each child some little token like a flag or something of that character. They might also sing a song or two, but in any event, the ceremonies as planned will be short and more for the purpose of giving the children pleasure and recognition than anything else, as La Fiesta will derive no revenue whatever from the affair."

"It is the wish of the Executive Committee that your honorable board lend to this event your moral support and approval, and we believe the management of it should be in the hands of Prof. Fosha, if it is possible to get his consent to act. By this means the children can be notified through the department as to when and where the ceremonies will be held. Hoping for your favorable consideration of this matter, I am very respectfully,

"C. D. WALTON, secretary."

This was referred to a special committee of five, to be advised by the president with power to act.

A petition from William Chapman, asking for leave to connect the cottage, No. 418 1/2 South Main street, with the sewer-pipe on the school premises on Olive street, between Fourth and Fifth, on account of the Grand-avenue sewer not being sufficiently large to carry off the drainage, was read and referred to the Building Committee.

The report of the Finance Committee was read and approved, and warrants ordered to be drawn for payment of the bills.

The Building Committee reported as follows:

"Your Building Committee recommends that a fence be built on the south side of the Union-avenue school, from where the overgreen hedge leaves off to the west side of the same; also, that a fence be constructed on the west side and on the south side, from where the fence erected by the oil company ceases, to the south side of the same; also place a cement sidewalk in front of the school at Custer street." The report was adopted.

The committee appointed to pass upon the matter of better telephone facilities in the city schools, made a report recommending that the proposal of the telephone company, submitted at the last meeting be accepted. The report was adopted.

Harmonious to a degree was a communication received from A. O. Daman, the principal of Harmony School. He stated that two common, plain tables, with one drawer in each, and two object tables, were needed by the school. To save expense, he suggested that an old Fort Wayne organ in the school-house be sold, and the proceeds be used in the purchase of the desired tables. To make certain of the tables, Mr. Daman himself offered $5 for the organ and stool. In case any one should offer more, Mr. Daman would be pleased to advise that the larger sum be accepted. He concluded with a cordial invitation to the board to come and see the school, as the flag still flew over it. The proposition as to the tables and organ was referred to Prof. Fosha, with power to act.

The Committee on Teachers and Schools made the following report:

"First—Your committee finds that it is necessary to provide a few additional teachers for the substitute list. Your committee, therefore, recommends that the following-named persons, whose applications and credentials have been submitted, be elected as substitute teachers: Belle M. True, Ida L. Hall, A. B. Gregory and Elizabeth Winston.

"Second—We recommend that leave of absence until June 30, 1897, be granted to Florence B. Smith, Wheatley.

"Third—We recommend that the resignation be accepted, to take effect March 12, 1897, of Edward L. Mayberry as assistant in the night school, and as his successor we recommend the election of Darwin Gish, to take effect on presentation of proper credentials to the superintendent." The report was adopted.

The Committee on Rules and Regulation, after careful consideration of the amendments received and referred to the committee, reported unfavorably to any change in the rules and regulations as they now exist. Mr. Braly objected to this, as he had been present at all committee meetings, and the matter was referred back to the committee at two weeks further consideration.

A requisition for supplies needed in the High School was read and referred to the Educational Supplies Committee with power to act.

Bids for the twenty-nine pianos needed in the city schools were opened and read by the secretary and referred to the Furniture and Repairs Committee, with instructions to examine the different instruments offered for consideration, and to negotiate for the purchase of those best suited to the needs of the schools.

Mr. Davis objected to hasty action, on account of the heavy expense involved, and moved, as an amendment to the motion that the committee be instructed to investigate the matter and report to the board. The amendment was lost by a vote of 6 to 2, and the original motion was then carried by a vote of 7 to 2.

The bids offered were: Williamson Bros., twenty-nine Behr pianos, at a total cost of $7830; Gardner & Zellner, Sterling pianos, at $225 each, or a total of $6525; Southern California Music Company, Kranich & Bach pianos at $295 each, total cost $8555; Salyer & Robinson, three different grades of pianos, at $258 $280 and $275 each, respectively; Gardner & Zellner, Story & Clark pianos at $285 each, total $2855; Henry Eilers, special agent of W. W. Kimball & Co. of Chicago, made the separate bids, one of pianos at $255 apiece, or $765 for all; another for pianos valued at $188 each, total $5462, and the third for instruments at the rate of $118 each, or $3422 for the whole lot. Another bid for supplying pianos at $188 each, was made by L. I. Sage, but as no certified check accompanied it, it was not taken into consideration.

The next subject taken up was the important one of the new school buildings and other improvements so badly needed in Los Angeles.

The special committee appointed February 23, 1897, in the matter of the proposed erection of new school buildings, returned the following partial report:

"We have examined the buildings to which additions have been proposed, as well as the territory in which new buildings have been suggested, and we recommend the following additions: Four rooms to the Sixteenth-street school building, four rooms to the San Pedro-street school, six rooms to the Sixth-street school, four rooms to the Seventh-street school, two rooms to the Swain-street school, two rooms to the Santa Fe-avenue school.

"A new building of not more than four rooms in the southerly portion of the Ninth Ward.

"A new building of not more than four rooms in the Second Ward, northerly from the Castelar-street school building.

"An addition of four rooms to the Pico Heights school building.

"For an addition of four rooms to the Macy-street school building.

"For an additional High School building of size sufficient to provide about thirty schoolrooms, and that said building be constructed so as to provide for industrial education in connection with the High School.

"That such additional lands be purchased as may be required to provide sufficient room for said buildings and for school lot purposes."

The committee suggested further that it be authorized to obtain from the Superintendent of Buildings of the city the necessary plans and estimates for the said buildings and additions, and showing the probable cost thereof; that it be ordered that as soon as said plans and estimates shall be filed with the secretary, the president and secretary of the board be authorized to submit the same to the City Council for adoption; that at the same time the City Council be requested to order such proceedings as may be necessary for the issuance of bonds to meet the extraordinary expenses incident to the undertakings above named.

The whole matter was continued to be taken up at a special meeting, which will be held next Thursday, March 11, at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Poor made a report on the disputed title of the Arroyo school property. This was conveyed to the city by Mr. Judson in April, 1896, but a portion of it has been used for school purposes ever since 1888. When it was divided into town lots, there was a verbal understanding that there should be left enough for the schoolhouse. No formal conveyance was made, and a subsequent misunderstanding prevented the transfer of title to the Board of Education. The property has been sold for taxes four times, once to W. A. Dunn and three times to the State. Mr. Poor suggested that the board be prepared to accompany a request to the State Controller that the sales be cancelled, and the matter was referred to him with power to act.

Upon motion of Mr. Conrey it was ordered that a letter of commendation be prepared and sent to Nellie C. Bourke, a former teacher who has married.

Mr. Davis then presented for ratification the action of the several members of the board in suspending the rule which forbids contributions in schools, in order that an addition might be made to the fund created to provide work for the unemployed. The committee, including Prof. Fosha, A. G. Bartlett and Charles Cassat Davis, was appointed by the Executive Committee of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, to raise money in the schools, and for this it had to get permission from the members of the board. Individuals before the rules could be formally suspended to allow the collection to be taken. Over $1200 has already been collected, and more is subscribed. The suspension of the rules was readily ratified by the board, and the collection approved.

Mr. Braly stirred up the board on the subject of planting trees, and found that steps toward thus shading the school yards of the city had already been taken by the committee appointed for that purpose.

President Mathis then announced that he had appointed Messrs. Bartlett, Davis, Braly, Adams and McInerney as the committee of five to confer with the Fiesta Committee upon the exercises for children's day. There being no more business before the board, it adjourned until next Thursday evening, when the special meeting will be held.

Anniversary Celebration.

Court Olive, No. 39, Foresters of America, celebrated its seventh anniversary last night with a theater party and benefit at the Burbank. Proceeding their entrance to the theater, the members of the court and of other courts, to the number of about 200, assembled at the hall of Court Olive, No. 107 1/2 North Main street, and headed by the Mexican Philharmonic Band, nearly all of whom are members of the order, marched down Main street to the theater, where the band discoursed music while the column was passing in. The boxes, loges and orchestra circle were filled with the Foresters and their friends.

Ah Sing's Hardware.

Ah Sing was found yesterday by Detective Steele wandering about trying to dispose of an assorted collection of stolen property. Ah Sing had a little iron plane, a pair of wire pliers, and a fearfully-constructed button-hole cutter, all of which he was trying to sell. The Chinaman could make no explanation of how the articles came into his possession, and the detective locked him up. The police say that Ah Sing is no stranger to the region behind the bars.

Notice of Removal

Dr. Wong Him, the Imperial Chinese physician, begs to announce to his numerous friends and patients that he has removed to larger and more modern premises, at 245 S. Spring street, between Eighth and Ninth streets, where he still hopes to merit the favor of his patronage. Take Traction, Grand avenue or Washington street cars.

TESTIMONY.
January 9, 1901.
To the Public: I take this means of expressing my thanks to Dr. Wong Him of 245 Upper Main street, for having cured me of kidney and stomach trouble which caused me great prostration. I was unable to get a good night's sleep for about three years, and, getting under the advice of the best doctors of Chicago, I came here to get well on the climate, but kept getting gradually worse, until I was told to try Dr. Wong Him, and by the aid of his wonderful life-giving herbs I am now a new woman, and feel stronger than I ever did. Any person wishing me to certify this can find me at 716 North Marengo avenue, Pasadena. MISS KLEMM.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Trouble of Abating Nuisances on Lots of Non-Residents.

After some preliminary caucusing in private in the Mayor's office, the Board of Health met in regular session, with all members present.

A communication was read from residents in the vicinity of Tenth, Hoover and Bush streets, who complained of a nuisance on Sixteenth street between Hoover and Bush streets.

There was said to be a large pool of water there from two to ten feet deep, and covered with a rich green scum. A number of other cases of a similar nature were referred by members of the board.

It was maintained that where such places were on the property of non-residents, the board had no authority to abate the nuisance. At Edgewood road and Douglas and at Court and Douglas streets children have been playing on rafts, at the danger of their lives.

They city engineer Snyder said he had no authority to fill up such lots and hold the expense as a lien on the property. Senator Bulla, unfortunately, had not been successful in his attempt to secure legislation to remedy such conditions.

Another obstacle had been that the owners in some cases had sometimes made assignments to non-residents in order to avoid liability for such nuisances. On motion of Dr. Moore the matter was referred to the Council.

The Health Officer was then instructed to take steps to abate the nuisance at the southeast corner of Seventh and Alvarado streets, and also between Seventh and Eleventh and Vernon and Whittier streets.

The report of Meat and Milk Inspector Dodson was read and ordered filed. Of tests of milk of twenty-six dairies, all were up to the standard percentage of butter fat save those of the Shenao and Fraser dairies, which were only 2.5 per cent.

An application was received from Mrs. Mary A. Benson for a position as health inspector. She through three of the inspectors should be women. No action was taken.

Health Officer Powers said there had been complaint made against irrigation from the sewers. This was covered only by the contract with Martz, president of the company. The board decided to ask the Council to provide against such an abuse by special ordinance.

Some general discussion was had of minor matters, such as fumigation and the transportation of milk from one place of work to another, but the board was evidently in such a state of suspended animation, owing to the maneuvers of the Council, that it was thought wise to postpone any definite action in matters not of great urgency.

The Fiesta Flag.

Stars and stripes in the fiesta colors show up bravely in the new fiesta flag, just finished by order of the Committee on Decorations, and now to be seen at the Chamber of Commerce. The flag shows broad stripes of orange and wine, with four stars of the same vivid colors upon an off white field. A new star is to be added with each successive year of the observance of the festival. This flag will be the most prominent feature in the decorations this year.

FIFTY-TWO AT WORK.

PICK AND SHOVEL ON THE NEW BOULEVARD.

Plan for Relief of the Unemployed put into Practical Operation. Recent Workmen Only Given First Chance.

Fifty-two of the unemployed men of this city were given work yesterday on the new boulevard which is to be constructed in Elysian Park. Only resident men with families were given work and many had to be turned away by Superintendent C. L. Wilde, because of a lack of shovels, and the fact that the surveyor had but partly finished the survey.

At an early hour over one hundred men were on the ground ready to go to work, but as the shovels and picks did not arrive on time, the work did not begin till almost 9 o'clock.

The men were put to work at the edge of the sidewalk on Buena Vista street about four hundred feet south of the river bridge and C. L. Wilde has charge of the men, being assisted in the work by A. H. Miller. The ground, where grading was commenced yesterday is of a sandy nature and easily gave way to the pick, and in some places the shovel. However, several men were put to drilling holes, where a harder sandstone was discovered, preparatory to blasting. Today several teams will be employed to do some plowing where the earth is soft.

The boulevard will be fifty feet wide, and at the Buena Vista street bridge teams will be employed to pull in to make an entrance to the park at that point. Stone walls will be constructed along Buena Vista street, above which will be green banks ascending to the boulevard proper. The proposed boulevard will gradually ascend the hill till the old burro trail is reached, where a fine view of the city and harbor can be seen.

The surveyors expect to follow the old trail into Chavez ravine, and on to Griffith Park.

As the bottom of the road is of soft sandstone, it can readily be seen that the boulevard will make an ideal drive without any further expense for cement.

The men went to work in a happy mood yesterday, one fellow remarking that he "was getting less pay and more happiness out of the work than he had ever enjoyed in thirty years."

The old city reservoir will be rapidly filled in and a good-sized band stand erected thereon.

No one is allowed employment at present unless he is a resident voter of Los Angeles. Tickets are distributed every morning and evening and every third work like clockwork every man is given his dollar every evening, after quitting work. Fifty more unemployed men will go to work on the park today. The number of men will be daily increased at this rate till 200 or 300 men are at work.

Eaton is supervising engineer of the work and a crew of men laying out the grounds yesterday.

Stole a Bicycle.

D. Booth, a mere boy, was arrested yesterday by Officer Ritch on a warrant charging him with petty larceny. The complainant is J. T. Halsay, who alleges that Booth purloined from him a bicycle and afterward disposed of it. The warrant has been out for over two weeks, and yesterday Officer Ritch, a man for the first time, gathered him in and booked him at the station on a charge of petty larceny.

JOHANNESBURG is situated in the heart of the now famous RAND MINING DISTRICT, one mile from the town of RANDSBURG, and at an elevation of 3500 feet.

THE TOWNSITE IS NEARLY LEVEL, sloping just enough to afford proper drainage.

AN ABUNDANCE OF PURE WATER is brought through 4-inch steel pipe from the Water Company's wells, 4 miles distant, direct to town.

LOTS are all 40x110 feet, fronting on fine streets 60 or 80 feet wide.

THE SAMPLING WORKS, located on Broadway in Johannesburg are receiving ore and are fully prepared to handle any quantity, paying for same on delivery, thus affording a sure market right at hand.

The Johannesburg Milling and Water Company has ordered machinery for a LARGE STAMP MILL, to be erected at once.

Easton, Eldridge & Co., Bank Building, Johannesburg—or—121 S. Broadway, Los Angeles.
